

SHOP/TRADES INSTRUCTORS

Women Building Futures is looking for a Shop Instructor in the Kitimat, B.C. area. This position is ideal for someone who wants to share their knowledge of their specific trade and has a flexible schedule that can accommodate teaching several weeks a year. This is not a full time position and the instructor is needed throughout different weeks of the year. If you are certified trades person and want to share your knowledge, then "You Got This!"

Key Responsibilities

The Instructor is responsible to teach and evaluate students in programs within the organization's curriculum.

Specifically, we are looking for a Trades Instructor to:

- Prepare and present one-week trades workshops in both a classroom and workshop setting for our upcoming programs
- Conduct student evaluations for the workshops
- Advise students about the skills and attitudes needed to succeed in the specific trade, as well as, seek feedback from students on instructional effectiveness and relevance
- Ensure tools, equipment and materials for the workshop are available
- Participate in course review, program review and curriculum development
- Build on the current curriculum, documenting additions and changes
- Instill safety, safe work procedures, hazard assessments and a safety mind-set into each day

Education & Experience

The Instructors should have:

- A Journeyman ticket/Red Seal for a minimum of 3 years in their specific trade
- Worked with apprentices and understands the competencies necessary to succeed in the field
- A desire to teach and share his/her knowledge of their specific trade
- Effective communication and interpersonal skills
- Teaching and facilitation experience an asset

Interested applicants can e-mail their cover letter and resume to careers@womenbuildingfutures.com.

Please note only short listed candidates will be contacted.

Open until a suitable candidate is found.